

105. 1666
Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Investigation - Mr. DeM.

DEM/Parker, Mills

February 15, 1923. Proceeded to Mount Holly, N.J. Was in conference with Mr. Parker, and received the following information from him -

Mr. Parker is very certain that Jim Mills has committed this crime. That Jim Mills paid Mr. Parker a visit and told Mr. Parker that he thinks the authorities are suspecting he (Jim Mills). Mr. Parker said that the person whom he has taking care of Charlotte, still has her in tow - That Mr. Totten had Jim Mills over to Somerville and took his fingerprints, and that Jim Mills is consulting or has a book on fingerprints. Mr. Parker learned through his informant that Jim Mills is very much watched, and to keep this method of procedure going. Mr. Parker has also secured all the information that Mr. & Mrs. Barnhardt had telephoned me, and he (Parker) did not think that I received all the information that they had.

Mr. Parker showed Mr. DeM. a letter which "The World" had written him recommending Mr. Sweeney as their representative, and also telling he (Parker) that they had a man by the name of Judge Waite working on the case, and that they were willing to have he (Parker) co-operate with Sweeney and Waite. Mr. Parker said that this is a trick of Mr. Sweeney's to find out whether he was working on the case. Mr. Sweeney asked Mr. Parker if he was working on the case, and Parker said "no." Mr. Sweeney also asked Mr. Parker if he had spoken to Charlotte, and Totten with reference to Charlotte, but Mr. Parker does not remember whether he said Charlotte had been to see him or not. Mr. Parker didn't tell Mr. Sweeney about having suspicions in the direction of Jim Mills, but steered him off in the direction of Mrs. Gibson, so as to throw him off the track. That he also saw Mrs. Gibson with Mr. Totten, and that she immediately recognized him (Parker). That she (Mrs. Gibson) admitted to him (Parker) that her first story which she told was <sup>not</sup> true; and she told him (Parker) of some new information which she did not tell the
